PLANS FOR NEW DEPOT

Louisville and Nashville Co.
Submit Proposed Design
For Improvements.

READY TO BEGIN WORK.

Council to Meet Monday Night to Consider the Matter.

Supt. Jno. W. Logsdon and Engineer Galvin, of the Louisville and Nashville Company, were in the city Thursday and submitted the proposed plan for the improvements to be made on the passenger station, to the building committee of the council.

The committee that recently called upon President M. H. Smith made a demand for a fire proof building, for toilet rooms, for steam heat and for sheds, concrete platforms and additional rooms, after they met with the positive refusal of Mr. Smith to build a new depot.

All of these demands are to be complied with in the new plan, which will be passed upon at a meeting of the council Monday night.

The entire building is to be covered with metal lathes and cement veneering, giving it the appearance of a stone building. The woodwork around the windows is to be replaced with metal or stone and the building made fire-proof.

Two additional rooms are to be added on the south end, one for a baggage room and the other for accommodating the heating plant.

The entire building is to be heated with hot water.

The north end of the building will be set apart for colored passengers, including the small room west of the ticket office, which will be for women.

The present colored waiting room and the present baggage room will be remodeled and made the central rooms of the building and be set apart for white passengers. The two rooms will be connected by an archway. All four of the waiting rooms will be provided with separate toilet rooms.

The entire front of the building from Second avenue to a point 100 feet south of Third avenue, will have a shed extending to the track for a distance of 280 feet. Under this shed there will be a granitoid platform, which will extend all around the building.

The coal yard west will be turned into a pretty little public square and will be macadamized with crushed stone and screenings.

The bay window in the northeast corner of the building will be tendered to the city as a sub-station for the police department and will be equipped with telephones, fire alarm system, steam heat and electric lights. It is proposed that it be used by policemen on duty at the depot as an all night station, and accords with plans the city council has had on foot for some time for such a station.

Mr. Logsdon says, the depot when finished will be fully as attractive in every way as the one at Henderson. The plan provides for the closing of Third avenue to vehicle traffic, as the platform will extend across the avenue and will be considerably elevated.

If approved by the building committee and permission to close Third avenue (formerly Tenth street) is obtained, the improvements will be begun at once.

STREET CARS CONSIDERED

At a Meeting Of the Stockholders of City Light Company.

THE PLANT EXTENDED.

Mr. E. K. Dewey At Head of Committee to Arouse Interest of Public.

Mr. E. K. Dewey, superintendent of the City Light Co., has started a movement looking to the installation of a street railway system in connection with the city lighting plant.

At the recent meeting of the stockholders the matter was favorably considered and a committee headed by Mr. Dewey was appointed to confer with citizens and see if such a movement would meet with popular approval. The capacity of the electric light plant has recently been very greatly increased by the addition of new machinery and Mr. Dewey says his power is sufficient to operate a street car line on two or three of the principal streets and the system could be extended as its needs were felt.

Amusements

Illusions of beauty are realistically portrayed in the offering of The Black Crook, Jr., Burlesquers, the merry meritorious attraction holding the boards of the Holland Opera House Tuesday night, Feb. 23.

Much has been said about the lavishness of this production and it is hardly necessary to have the numerous prominent features depicted again in all its details. The cast is not only an exceptionally strong one in quality, but in quantity as well, the half dozen comedians being surrounded by twenty-five most fascinating girls, who are not only sunny creatures of their sex, but who are graceful and shapely and bound to interest those fond of the loveliness of femininity.

"Two Merry Tramps."

Two Merry Tramps, since last presented here has been all improved and rewritten with twelve new musical numbers and with music you can whistle. The Famous Squabs, the McDonald Sisters, have been engaged to play opposite those two fun experts Wood & Ward, who will appear at Holland's Opera House Feb. 26.

BUNCH OF ROOTERS

Went With Harry Cate to Madisonville Contest.

A large and enthusiastic delegation, including about 50 High School pupils, went to Madisonville last night to attend the oratorical contest and to "root" for Harry Cate, Hopkinsville's entry. They expected to return on the midnight train.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING

Miss Annie McPherson Wedded to Mr. Geo. C. Howell,

The marriage of Miss Annie Withrow McPherson to Mr. George Cook Howell occurred Thursday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Edgar McPherson, on South Main street.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. H. H. Branch, of the Westminster Presbyterian church. Tanager's Wedding March was beautifully rendered by Miss Elizabeth Nourse, as the happy couple entered the parlor unattended. The house plants. The bride received many beautiful and costly wedding gifts.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Howell left on the 5:18 L. & N. train for the South and after a short bridal tour will be at home in Richmond, Va., where the groom is in business.

The bride is an only daughter and has been one of Hopkinsville's most popular belles since her graduation a few years ago. She is a member of the Shakespeare club and the "As You Like It Club." Among the out-of-town relatives who attended the wedding and are still visiting Mr. McPherson's family were Jamie McPherson, Miss Anna D. McCombs and Miss Ben D. Gray, of Louisville.

GAME TONIGHT

Between Madisonville and McLean College Reserves.

The McLean Reserves and Madisonville High school will play a game of basket ball here tonight. The game will be played at the college gymnasium and will be called at 8 o'clock.

Admission 25c. In the first game played at Madisonville the latter won, but the McLean boys are figuring on a victory tonight. This will probably be the last game played here this season and no doubt a big crowd will witness the contest.
